

PASTORAL VISIT AT STOWE.

Mr. Editor:—In your paper of the 13th inst., was a notice of a proposed visit to the house of the Congregational minister in Stowe, and with the notice, an expression of your assurance, founded on the well known character of the people of this place, that the hearts of the minister and his wife would be gladdened by a liberal donation.

The visit has been made. The young and old came in with their happy faces and their cordial greetings, and brought with them gifts to the value of more than ninety dollars, of which seventy dollars were in money.

Our thanks to you for your previous notice of the visit, and through you our heartfelt wish is that they whose presence made us glad, may themselves be made glad by the richest blessing of our Heavenly Father.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Samuel Tuller, confined in jail at this place on a charge of horse-stealing, on Thursday night last attempted to make his escape therefrom by a flight up the chimney. He had succeeded in removing the bricks, making a hole sufficiently large to crawl through, when he found to his grief that the aperture of the chimney was guarded by iron bars placed across each other. Next morning our would be "skeadler" made a clean breast of it, informing the jailor that he had been "transgressing the laws," at the same time pointing out his unsuccessful labors of the night previous. He was forthwith presented with a pair of "darbies" as a reward for his industry.—Irasburgh Standard.

THE BELLEVUE STEREOSCOPE.—Now that the Holidays are over—if any of our readers have not been so fortunate as to receive one of these beautiful Stereoscopes as a present—we advise them to be generous and make themselves a present of one—for certainly in all the range of interesting things which we have seen, we have seldom met with anything more captivating. In the landscape, every rock and tree seems as if actually before your eye, and in the case of Satuary or Parlor groups—the statue or individual is there not as a picture but as a matter of fact. Indeed every view is one of surpassing beauty. The stereoscope is sold for $2; sent by mail for 2.40. Pictures in great variety at 25 cents each. C. H. Wheeler & Co., 5 & 7 Essex Street, Boston, are the Proprietors. Trade supplied.

DONATION VISIT.

Married.

In Morristown, on the 19th inst. by Rev. J. Dougherty, Mr. Hiram J. Town, and Miss Mary Stebbins, both of Morristown.

Died.

In Newport, Jan. 25th, Sarah, wife of James T. Allen.
Her remains will be brought to this place to-day. Funeral at the church to-morrow, Thursday, at one o'clock.

In Stowe Jan. 15th, Miss Jane M. Towne, daughter of Luke J. and Lucy A. Towne, aged 15 years.

In North Hyde Park, Jan. 12th, of diphtheria, Nettie Estelle, youngest daughter of John and Ann Bullard, aged 3 years, 2 months and 17 days.

After two weeks of distressing illness, in which little Nettie was a patient sufferer, she left her home here, to join the angel band in Heaven. She was a gentle, engaging child, and her winning, affectionate ways, won the hearts of all who knew her. So generous, and self-sacrificing a spirit is rarely exhibited in one so young. Little did Nettie's parents realize the household treasure they had possessed, till she was taken from them. May this sudden and sore bereavement lead them to the Savior, and they, by giving themselves to Him, thus be enabled to train the REMAINING ONE for Heaven. Their deep grief has elicited much sympathy from neighbors and friends in their behalf.

We do pray that they, as a family, may finally be re-united in that heavenly land where separations never come.

"Farewell Nettie! thou hast left us,
For a home above;
There to join the angel seraph,
In their songs of love!

Thou art now an angel, Nettie,
In the Heavenly clime;
Robed in spotless purity,
In bliss divine.

Farewell, darling! we will grace thee,
On that peaceful shore;
Father, mother and sister will meet thee
There, to part no more!"

M. M. L.

In Louisiana, June the 22d, 1863, Fred L. Schofield, Co. H, 7th Regiment Vt. Vols., aged 14 years, 9 months and 17 days.
In Elmora, Jan. 11th, 1864, of Canker-rash, Miss Hattie I. Schofield, aged 13 years and 11 days.

In Hyde Park, on the 20th inst., Sylvanus F., youngest child of Mrs. Aurelia M. Aiels, widow of the late Sylvanus Aiels, aged 1 year, 5 months and 5 days.

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO MRS. AIELS.

Ah! to-day those tones come pealing
From that mournful funeral bell;
Yet around our spirit stealing
Angel whispers, "It is well."
For this little life is lifting
Off the shadows from the soul,
While we tearfully are drifting
Onward toward our future goal.

We are richer when our cheisbed
Pass in silence from our side;
When our brightest hopes have perished,
And in all their glory died.
Richer for these "light afflictions;"
He here heavier for our sakes—
Richer, for these earthly frictions
Show us where Heaven's morning breaks.

Hyde Park, Jan. 22d. E. A. N.

In Johnson, Jan. 13th, of canker-rash, Cora A. daughter of Joel H. and Sarah A. Partlow, aged 4 years and 7 months.

Another little one taken, another treasure gone, another bright bird parted for a clearer sky.

"Beyond this stormy battle-zone,
She reigns and triumphs now;
Sweeping a harp of wondrous song,
With glory on her brow.
O could you hear the sweetness
Of that angelic strain,
Not earth's best gifts would tempt you
To call her back again."

In Morristown, on the 16th inst., Orenda, wife of Heman Gifford, aged 70 years.

In Johnson, Jan. 11th, of canker-rash, George E., son of Seymour and Rosa Dubray, aged 4 years and 6 months. Also Jan. 18th, of canker-rash, Dora youngest child of I. F. and Sally Andrews, aged 3 years and 4 months.

In Cambridge, Jan. 18th, of canker-rash, Flora Mudgett, aged 21 years.
A gentle daughter and loving sister has been snatched, very suddenly, from her once happy, but now sorrowful home circle. The lines of the pious Cecil, on a "Dying Youth" WILL COME now to the widowed mother, and the surviving brother and sister.

"Cease here longer to detain me,
Fondlest mother, drowned in woe;
Now thy kind caresses pain me,
Morn advances—let me go!

"Weep not o'er these eyes that languish,
Upward turning toward their home;
Baptured they'll forget all anguish,
While they wait to see thee come!

"There, my mother, pleasures centre;
Weeping, parting, care or woe,
Ne'er our father's house shall enter:
Morn advances—let me go.

"As through this calm, this holy dawning,
Silent glides my parting breath,
To an everlasting morning,
Gently close my eyes in death.

"Yet to leave thee sorrowing reads me,
Though again his voice I hear:
Rise! may every grace attend thee;
Rise! and seek to meet me there."

Notice.

WHEREAS my wife, Helen A. Luce, has left my bed and board without cause or provocation, this is to forbid all persons harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date.

The New York Times.

Daily (Morning and Evening) Semi-weekly and Weekly.

The most enterprising and reliable Family Newspaper in the United States.

The New York Times is now recognized throughout the country as conspicuous among the journals of the City of New York for the Cheapsness of its issues, the enterprise of its management, and the promptness and authenticity of its news.

It pays unflinching allegiance to the Union and Constitution; lending a steady, but discriminating support to the present Administration of the Government, and advocating every timely effort to promote the progress and elevation of every portion of the human race. In this advocacy it yields only to safe and conservative impulses, placing always the public good in advance of merely humanitarian or secretarian considerations. No question of import to the welfare of the nation or society fails to obtain candid, independent and exhaustive discussion in the columns of this journal.

In the department of news the first aim of the Times will continue to be the collection and publication of trustworthy intelligence from all parts of the world.

Its general correspondence, both foreign and domestic, is confessed to be superior to any other American newspaper. Its letter descriptive of THE EVENTS OF THE WAR, its record of the movements of the contending armies, their marches, their battles, their retreats, the list of casualties, its delineations of camp life, have given a new and distinctive interest to that department of journalism.

Its reports of Congressional and Legislative proceedings, of financial, commercial and general intelligence, of important legal and criminal trials, and of whatever may have special interest for the great body of the community, are full, prompt and reliable.

But whether in the enunciations of opinions or the statement of facts, the Times never loses sight of the obligations of public or private morality; never conciliates the judgment or taste of the vicious; but seeks uniformly to furnish reading properly admissible into the Domestic Circle.

The NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES is a large and elegantly printed quarto sheet, of eight pages, containing a full and complete record of the forty-eight columns—devoted to Politics, Literature and General News, and intended to be the best as well as the CHEAPEST Family Newspaper in the United States.

Special attention devoted to full accurate and trustworthy reports of the Live stock and Produce markets, and a special corps of reporters is maintained.

The Agricultural department is compiled from a variety of sources, many of them inaccessible to the American reader, and furnishes valuable information to the farmer and gardener.

The Weekly Times will be sent to subscribers in any part of the country on the following terms:

Single copies $2 a year.
Three " $5 a year.
Five " $8 a year.
Ten " $15 a year.
—and an Extra copy to any club of ten.

Twenty copies $25 a year.
The Weekly Times is sent to clergymen at $1.25. Any person who will send us a club of twenty, the Semi-weekly Times, will be sent gratis one year. To any one sending us a club of fifty, the Daily Times will be sent gratis one year.

The SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES, published on Tuesdays and Fridays, and containing eight pages of reading matter in every number, is sent to subscribers at the following rates:

Single copies, $3
Two " $5
Five " $12
Ten " $22.50
The Semi-weekly Times is sent to clergymen at $2.25.

Fresh names may at any time be added to clubs, both of the Weekly and Semi-Weekly, at club rates.

The NEW YORK DAILY TIMES is published every morning and evening—price Three Cents; mailed at $3 a year, with Sunday Edition $10. We employ no traveling agents. Specimen copies sent without charge.

AGENTS AND CANVASSERS WANTED.
A splendid opportunity for active parties to canvass for a pair of unusually popular engravings, just issued by the Department of the Pilgrims for America; and the Landing of the Pilgrims in America. Price so low that every family will purchase. Address, for terms, CALDWELL & CO., 52 Cedar St., New York.

TWO ELEGANT WORKS OF ART!
Just issued!

The Departure of the Pilgrim Fathers for America, and The Landing of the Pilgrims in America.

Each engraving 26 x 34 inches, price only $1.30 each, by mail. These constitute the finest pair of companion engravings ever published in the United States. They were engraved by the most eminent steel plate engraver in this country, John C. McKee, of New York City, and for artistic skill and high beauty were never excelled. Mr. McKee is great in whatever he attempts, but in these gems he has outdone himself. He was determined to render them enduring monuments of his skill, and no pains or expense have been spared to make them perfect works of art, and to excel any similar works ever issued in this country. They are the same size, and in every respect equal to the elegant English engravings of the same subjects, which cannot be bought in this country for less than $12.50 each copy.

We have undertaken a gigantic enterprise, and one in which we earnestly invite the co-operation of all lovers of the beautiful in art. We must sell fifty thousand copies of each of these magnificent engravings, and to accomplish this, we have placed the price low enough to bring them within the reach of every one. Will you help us?

And in so doing confer a lifelong pleasure on yourself! Such a great value in art for so little money was never before offered, and nothing short of a very large sale will remunerate us. Such splendid Parlor Gems are usually published at $5 or $10 each, but we have determined to appeal to the public, to sustain us in our efforts to bring them within the reach of every family in the land.

The great historical value of these pictures—their large size—their great elegance and beauty will render them of incalculable value to every home. All honor to the "Mayflower Puritans"—the brave and true.

What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels, bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas—the spoils of war?
They sought a faith's pure shrine!
O! call it holy ground—
The spot where first they trod—
They have left unchanged what there they found,
Freedom to worship God!
